Islam Awareness Week UCSD (4 times), San Diego State, Darwin's birthday Balboa Park, Lindburgh Airport (2 times),

Seems like the more we go out the more I want to. I'm going to try to go out twice a week now. So many need to hear this message of the cross of our Savior in San Diego.

Islam awareness week was quite interesting. They had dozens of booths on campus at UCSD. I spoke with a number of Muslims and stressed the Holiness and Justice of God requires a penalty for our sins. Simply asking forgiveness is not enough. We need a savior. Jesus was the one prophesied that would suffer for the sins of His people. Eyewitnesses saw Him crucified and raised from the dead. I was having a very good conversation with one of the Muslim students only to have another Muslim man pull him away physically so we couldn't talk. Perhaps seeds were sown that will produce fruit.

Darwin's birthday was on Saturday the 12th. I was able to give my creation/evolution presentation 5 times at Balboa Park including in front of the Museum of Man and Natural History Museum.

I'm standing on a concrete bench doing open air preaching on the vast differences between the message of Islam and Christianity at UCSD campus. The Muslim booths were to my right about 50 feet. A few muslims came and listened.

A view of the airport. Our permit is now expired but we were able to go 6 times in the last 3 months. After I took this photo, I was able to speak with the man in the foreground (with the levi's walking left) about the gospel for 15 minutes. He's from Vancouver and was very interested. I gave him a gospel of John and my email address. Hopefully I'll hear from him again.

Here's Landry giving out some tracts to these school kids at Balboa Park. I'm standing in the midst of the kids as well handing them million dollar bills. The teacher took one (to Landry's left), and seemed pleased that the kids were so excited. Pray that many would be read at home and reach the family with the gospel.

Letters...

Dianna, and I can't tell you how much we appreciate your letters, prayers and support. Your letters of encouragement lift our spirits and motivate us to continue to press on. Thank you so very much.

Here are few recent letters:

Hi Jerry and Dianna,

I think the new format for your newsletter is great. I very much admire your method of outreach to people in San Diego. May God continue to bless you.

Carol

Jerry and Dianna,

In your February 2011 newsletter, you indicate that you could use some financial help with some more million dollar bills. Enclosed you will find a check for $100 to help you with that effort.

Keep up the good work,

Dave

Jerry in front of the Museum of Man at Balboa Park giving a presentation on the errors of evolution. The man talking to me at this point was in charge of the museum and asked me if I had a permit. I told him I didn't need one. He grumbled away and immediately got on his cell phone. No one came and there were no more issues.

JWs Challenged

Witnesses Challenged at Airport (again)

If you recall, last month I was able to share with some Jehovah's Witnesses at the airport at their booth.

This month we went again to the airport and a different couple were there. I brought a couple of tracts that I wrote concerning false prophecies made by the organization along with photocopies. The gentleman on the right has been a witness 41 years. I couldn't get him to look at the photocopies so I read it to him.

This false prophecy was one that had a reference in the Awake! magazine for many years about the "creators promise" to return before those who were alive in 1914 died. Since they are all dead now the prophecy has been removed from the Awake!.

He said that since this was not up to date they have the truth now about these things. When I pressed him further, "doesn't this make the organization a false prophet?" He refused to talk further. The woman offered me a booklet. I said I would gladly accept if she would take my photocopies. She refused and would talk no further. I told her, "error would always run from truth".

I asked for their names and told them I would pray for them. She told me hers but he refused.

2 Jehovah's witnesses at the airport again. Unless you knew their literature, there was nothing that would indicate they were Jehovah's Witnesses. Sadly, they are blinded by darkness.

What's Coming???

Irish Parade... In a few weeks 30,000 plus people with over 150 entries will participate in San Diego's Irish Parade. Lord willing we'll be there to share the greatest news on earth.

25,000 tracts ordered... Many of you have generously contributed towards our largest printing ever of million dollar bills. Each has 20 bible references or quotes and the gospel, both good news and bad, clearly given. Should have them in a couple of weeks. We'll make every effort to give them away this year.

Twice a week??? Lord willing, I'd like to go out twice a week. Probably Tuesday and Thursday days. If you are available daytime please contact us. Generally around 10 a.m. to noon. We'll still do Saturdays but not every week.

Preaching in Phoenix March 27... I've been invited to preach in a church in Phoenix. We're hoping to be able to go early enough to do some tracting there. If you would like the address of the Church, e-mail us. We'd love to meet you there.
